

Dear Parents

Our u/13A netball team is currently ranked first in the Eastern Cape. What a privilege and positive experience to watch them playing in Komani. Lessons can be learnt from our senior team. They played netball on the next level, beating opponents while remaining humble, focused and allowed their coach to guide them.

We wish them all the best on their way to the SASN Primary School Netball Championships - travel safely and leave your legacy.

Unfortunate for the u/12's who were so close to following in the footsteps of our senior team. You did well girls and with lessons learnt we can move forward and focus to ensure a different outcome in 2026.

The u/9A rugby team are on tour in East London while the Pirtek Rugby Tournament is being finalized. With our newly installed spotlights our facilities are ready for more opportunities and we thank our SGB for their initiative.

Our cultural department is working behind the scenes to create a show beyond the norm. They are quietly reaching their goal and we look forward to seeing the fruit of their hard work. Thank you so much for the extra hours you avail to create the upcoming show.

It is not always easy to create opportunities as there are many practical considerations and learners develop on different levels and at different rates. I recently attended and watched the beginners hockey, tennis, netball and rugby. I must raise my hand and give gratitude to the coaches as this is not an easy task. Skill levels and interest in the sport together with expectations is a recipe for "organized chaos". Things are very different at the next age group although a few players were still battling. It changes with the older age groups while some are there to just participate and enjoy - it does not matter at all!

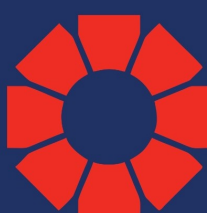

Our u/14 hockey girls will once again brave the freezing weather and participate in the Anne Beagly tournament in Graaff-Reinet. Their positive attitude always warms the atmosphere both on and off the field of play. The u/14 boys will visit George to play in the Eden tournament - a first for Sunridge in the lovely Wilderness region. They may miss out on the cold but could get some winter rain. Thank you boys, girls and staff for giving up part of your winter holidays.

The u/11A rugby boys will, once again, participate at the Aloe Cup in Jeffreys Bay - close to home but as regular visitors they have had huge success in the past. No pressure boys!

Reports will be handed out on 27 June 2025 to learners present at school. School will close at 11:00. Learners participating in official school tours will receive their reports at the field of play - reports will be delivered to the coaches.

Let us all shine bright for Sunridge.

Sunshine greetings

Geagte Ouers

Ons O/13A-netbalspan beklee tans die eerste posisie in die Oos-Kaap. Wat 'n voorreg en positiewe ervaring om hierdie span op Komani in aksie te sien. Ons kan lesse by ons senior span leer. Hulle het netbal tot die volgende vlak geneem – hulle teenstanders ore aangesit, maar tog nederig en gefokus gebly en leiding van hul afrigter aanvaar.

Ons wens hulle alles van die beste toe op hulle pad na die SASN-Laerskole-Netbalkampioenskap – reis veilig en laat julle nalatenskap agter.

Die O/12A-netbalspan het net-net nie die pyp gerook nie, maar was baie naby daaraan om in die voetspore van die senior span te volg. Knap gedaan, meisies – ons het 'n paar lesse geleer, wat ons goed te staan sal kom en 'n ander uitkoms in 2026 sal verseker. Die O/9A-rugbyspan is op toer na Oos-Londen en intussen word die finale reëlings vir die Pirtek-Rugbytoernooi getref. Danksy die SBL is die kolligte geïnstalleer en is ons fasiliteite gereed om meer geleenthede aan te bied.

Ons kultuurdepartement is volstoom aan die gang om iets buitengewoons op die planke te bring. Hulle is stadig maar seker besig om hul doelwit te bereik en ons sien daarna uit om die vrugte van hul harde werk te pluk. Baie dankie vir die ekstra ure wat u insit om die vertoning iets spesiaal te maak.

Dit is nie altyd maklik om geleenthede te skep nie, want daar is talle praktiese oorwegings en leerders ontwikkel op verskillende vlakke en teen 'n verskillende tempo. Ek maak tans 'n punt daarvan om die beginnershokkie, -tennis, -netbal en -rugby by te woon. My dankbaarheid teenoor die afrigters ken geen perke nie, want hierdie is nie 'n maklike taak nie. Vaardigheidsvlakke en belangstelling in die sport, gepaard met verwagtinge, is 'n resep vir "beheerde chaos". Dinge is baie anders by die volgende ouderdomsgroep, hoewel 'n paar spelers nog 'n bietjie sukkel. Met die ouer kinders kom verandering, terwyl sommige slegs daar is om deel te neem en dit te geniet – dit maak glad nie saak nie!

Ons O/14-hokkiemeisies gaan weereens die ysige weer trotseer en aan die Anne Beagly-toernooi op Graaff-Reinet deelneem. Hul positiewe ingesteldheid sorg altyd vir 'n warm atmosfeer op en langs die speelveld. Die O/14-seuns gaan aan die Eden-toernooi op George deelneem - dit is 'n nuwe ervaring vir Sunridge in die wonderskone Wildernis-omgewing. Dit mag dalk nie so koud wees nie, maar miskien kry ons 'n lekseltjie winterreën. Baie dankie aan die seuns, meisies en personeel wat hul wintervakansie opoffer.

Die O/11-rugbyseuns gaan weer om die Aloe-trofee op Jeffreysbaai meeding – naby aan die huis, maar as gereelde besoekers het ons in die verlede groot sukses behaal. Geen druk nie, seuns!

Rapporte word op 27 Junie 2025 aan leerders wat teenwoordig is, oorhandig. Die skool sluit om 11:00. Die spelers wat aan amptelike skooltoere deelneem, sal hul rapporte by die speelveld ontvang, want die rapporte sal by die afrigters afgelewer word.

Kom ons almal skyn helder vir Sunridge.
